Credit Deposit Ratio in Madhya Pradesh

1061. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state :

(a) whether it is a fact that the credit-deposit ratio of the commercial banks in Madhya Pradesh is lower than the All-India credit-deposit ratio; and

(b) whether Government propose to take any steps to improve this ratio pertaining to Madhya Pradesh and that of other States whether it is lower than the national average; if so, what are the details thereof ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI) : (a) and (b) The credit : deposit ratio of all scheduled commercial banks in Madhya Pradesh as at the end of December 1986 was marginally lower at 68.9 per cent as against all India credit : deposit ratio of 63.0 per cent.

The actual level of credit in relation to locally mobilised deposits in a particular State depends upon the level of economic activity of the state which in turn is influenced by several factors such as availability of infrastructural facilities like transport and power, proximity to sources of raw material, access to market, local entrepreneurship etc. Banks have been advised to take effective steps for increasing credit in credit deficient areas and avoid wide disparities in credit : deposit ratio.

Opening of New Rural Branches of Banks in Madhya Pradesh

1062. SHRI AJIT P. K. JOGI : Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the number of new rural branches of banks that will be opened and that have already been opened in Madhya Pradesh under the rural branch expansion programme of the Reserve Bank for the period from 1985 to 1990;

(b) how many of such branches will be opened by the commercial banks and how many by the regional rural banks; and

(c) whether Government are considering to bring the service conditions and emoluments of the employees of rural banks on a par with that of the employees of commercial banks ?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI JANARDHAN POOJARI) : (a) and (b) Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has reported that 483 rural and semi-urban centres in Madhya Pradesh have been allotted by it upto 30th September, 1987 under the current Branch Licensing Policy for 1985-90; of which 273 centres have been allotted to different commercial banks and 210 centres have been allotted to Regional Rural Banks (RRBs). The banks have been advised by the RBI that branches at the allotted centres should be opened in a phased manner during the remaining period of the current Policy. As per information available with RBI, upto 30th September, 1987, 19 branches have been opened by commercial banks and 68 by RRBs.

(c) No, Sir. However, the Government have decided to set up a national tribunal with a view to determine the pay, allowances and other benefits payable to the employees of Regional Rural Banks set up in various States.
